Who Will Address Minority Disproportionality
In The Criminal Justice System

IN A FEW SHORT YEARS, THIS SUMMIT HAS
RESPONSIBLE FOR:

- Creating awareness around Iowa’s criminal justice disparities and advocating for strategies to improve them
- Negotiating the appointment of the Governor’s Criminal Justice Reform Working Group (GJRWG)
- Through the GJRWG, leading the way for the successful passing of several justice reform laws)

For over a decade, Iowa has ranked at the top in the nation for the number of African Americans per capita in the criminal justice system. Other minority groups are also critically over-represented.
